

Afternoon Tea

Anna Russell, the 7th Duchess of Bedford, first introduced the delightful afternoon tea in the early 19th Century. Through the years it has remained as a lovely way to catch up on family news or reminisce with old friends, Canal Court proudly continues the tradition in our splendid Conservatory overlooking one of the magnificent water features in one of Ireland's oldest waterways.

Take in the beautiful surroundings as your waiting staff bring you a pot of freshly brewed tea, chosen from a carefully selected menu of teas sourced to compliment your food perfectly. Enjoy a selection of finely cut sandwiches and miniature savouries, freshly baked scones and delicate selection of desserts.

Our creative team are continually coming up with new twists on Afternoon Tea Classics to surprise and delight our guests.

Our menu is inspired by the seasons available throughout the year to ensure that every visit to The Canal Court Hotel & Spa for Afternoon Tea offers something truly unique and memorable.

Allow us to serve you tradition at its finest.
